

PY-104

Bearing Hiding

- Bearing hides are used in all playgroups to prevent possible accidents and injuries.
- Bearing hides; It provides an aesthetic appearance to playgroups and parking elements by allowing mounting elements such as screws and nuts to be hidden.
- Bearing closures are produced from polythene plastic material by injection method, suitable for indoor and outdoor use.
- It is resistant to UV lights and is designed not to harm the user.

